PROGRAMME

We offer a part-time pre-professional ballet training programme for students aged 9 to 16 years old. Classes are located at Dansez Maintenant and will take place in the afternoon, from Monday to Friday. Each year, our teachers will instruct classical ballet technique and artistry to the young talents, aged 9 to 12 for Level 1 and 13 to 16 for Level 2.

OUR AMBITION

We seek to train and educate exceptional young dancers in preparation for joining prestigious ballet schools and companies around the world and promote the excellence of the french classical ballet technique.

THE STUDENTS

To join our programme, we are looking for young boys and girls who are passionate about ballet with outstanding physical qualities and a strong motivation and desire to become professional dancers.

OUR TEACHERS

Emmanuelle Rousse who is the director of the pre-professional training programme Temps de Flèche in Carpentras in south of France and Alexis Saramite, teacher and dancer from the Paris Opera Ballet will be our teachers for the Academie's programme. Numerous prestigious guest teachers and dancers will be invited regularly to teach the students in an effort to enrich their training.

EMMANUELLE ROUSSE

Emmanuelle starts her training at an early age in France and in Italy. At the age of 17, she starts her performing career with independent companies. At 23 years old, she joins l'Opéra Comique. She enriches her training by becoming a staging assistant and then, by taking a position as a sound and light designer in Avignon. Located in the French PACA region since 1998, she continues to dance as a guest. In 2003, she takes over the direction of the Temps de Flèche school in Carpentras where she trains numerous dancers to become professional dancers.

ALEXIS SARAMITE

Alexis joins the Paris Opera Ballet School at the age of 11. At 17 years old, he joins the Paris Opera Ballet where he dances all of the classical ballets of the Company's Répertoire. He is given soloist roles and opportunities to dance in most of the important contemporary and modern creations. After a fulfilling career as a dancer, Alexis turns to teaching. Regularly invited abroad to pass on the French classical style with rigor and passion, he continues to train Paris Opera Ballet dancers in private sessions.

OUR STORY

It all begins with the encounter of the founder of Dansez Maintenant, a new dance school in Montmartre and the talented dance teachers coming to teach in these new studios. Dansez Maintenant opened its doors in September of 2020, to be closed to the public for 11 months but still welcoming the pre-professional and professional dancers who were allowed to continue their in-person training. It is at this occasion that parents of young dancers shared with us their observation : pre-professional ballet schools are a rare finding in Paris. Discussions between the founder of Dansez Maintenant and the teachers eventually lead to their decision to create this programme that will open its doors for the third year of Dansez Maintenant !

OUR VALUES

We seek to create the best coaching possible, rigorous and caring, to maximize the dancing potential of our future students, for them to be happy and fulfilled dancers and young adults.

ADMISSION

Admission will be based on the talent and potential of the prospective students. Admission to the programme is by audition only. The first audition will take place in February, the second one in April and the third in June. Interested students should be strongly dedicated to the programme and ready to train for several hours, five days a week.
